

Beyond Brownfields: Visions of Equitable and Sustainable Development

An international conference and regional forum sponsored by the Pratt Institute Center for Community and Environmental Development

This event will bring together U.S. and international practitioners who are envisioning – and implementing – innovative approaches to the redevelopment of environmentally burdened urban areas. The conference will address revitalization from the perspectives of sustainability and environmental justice, and will showcase imaginative models from Europe and Canada, and new work by grassroots organizations in the US. Conference participants will join in examining obstacles to the implementation of such approaches in the New York City region, and in formulating strategies to overcome them.

Monday, October 16th, and Tuesday, October 17th, at 1199's Cheransky / Davis Conference Center, 330 West 42nd Street, 33rd Floor, New York City

Reception and exhibition opening Tuesday, October 17th, 6 PM, at the Municipal Art Society, 457 Madison Avenue.
